

Red Cross Starts Hungarian Fund Drive Here

FIRST CONTRIBUTION to the local Red Cross drive for funds for Hungarian relief came from Mr. and Mrs. Bill Foldsey of the Palm Springs Hotel. Accepting the $100 check from Mrs. Foldsey is Shelby Langford, local branch chairman. Mr. Foldsey, whose father came to this country from Hungary in 1902, said that the contribution was for "the freedom we enjoy." (Desert Sun Photo)

Runaway Air Force Missile Still Missing

Last Seen Heading Towards Brazil, Sets New Record

WASHINGTON (AP)—An intercontinental guided missile which escaped Air Force control was headed toward Brazil when last seen by radar, officials said today.

The missing missile, a 600-mile an hour Snark, was test fired Wednesday from the experimental center at Patrick Air Force Base, Cocoa, Fla. Its guidance mechanism went haywire and the Snark refused to obey radio orders to return to base.

BY LATE MORNING today the Air Force still had received no word of what happened to it. If it crashed in the Brazilian jungles, as seemed likely, chances of ever finding it would be slim.

In disappearing into the wild blue, the missile apparently set a distance record. Air Force sources said the missile probably went about 3,000 miles before it crashed. This is farther than any Air Force intercontinental missile is known to have been traveled on test.

THE WAYWARD missile was launched over a test range that stretches across the Caribbean into the South Atlantic off the nose of Brazil.

The Snark, developed by the Northrop Aircraft, Inc., is a pilotless bomber which flies at near the speed of sound and at altitudes over 50,000 feet.

Test Snarks have been test fired several times from Patrick AFB. This is the first time one is known to have disobeyed ground control orders.

Pre-Christmas Teen-Age Party Planned Tonight

Pre-Christmas party for members of the Palm Springs Youth Center will be held in the Youth Center's new "Blue Room" from 7:30 to 11:30 p.m., tonight, Friday. The dance will be sponsored by the Sophomore Class of Palm Springs High School and the Center's Teen-Board.

Featured entertainers will be Wini Beatty and her Trio, currently appearing at the Howard Manor, who will provide music for dancing from 8:30 to 9:15 p.m. Arrangements for the appearance of the recording stars were made by Mrs. William Powell, Mrs. B. H. Poliak and Bill White.

Decorations will be in the form of a night club.

Admission will be 75 cents stag, and $1 drag (couple).

Marines Check Crash Into Troops

CAMP PENDLETON (AP)—Marine Corps officials today investigated the crash of a jet plane into "enemy troops" during war maneuvers, killing the pilot and two infantrymen.

The Marine Corps said the plane was flying air support for "friendly forces" when it crashed into an "enemy" defended hill Thursday. A third infantryman was injured.

The dead were identified as 1st Lt. David L. Day, 26, Santa Ana, the pilot; Pvt. Raymond J. Eckert, 18, Chicago; and Cpl. George R. Parker, 22, Americus, Ga. The injured man was 1st Lt. Steve Percy, 25, Camp Pendleton.

More than 100 Marines were entrenched in combat positions in the immediate area of the crash during the simulated strafing attack.

Freedom Loving Family Makes First Contribution

A freedom loving family today became the first contributors to the Hungarian Relief Fund Drive which was started by the local branch of the Red Cross this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Foldsey of the Palm Springs Hotel presented a $100 check to Shelby Langford, local branch chairman.

Bill Foldsey's father came to this country from Hungary in 1902, and they came to Palm Springs 38 years ago. During that time he has remained conscious of the opportunity that freedom has brought him, and now more than ever is proud of his ancestry—during the gallant but hopeless fight for freedom being waged by Hungarians against Russians.

THEIR CONTRIBUTION was for "the freedom we enjoy here, and to help the Hungarian refugees that are coming into the United States, as well as providing food and clothing for those continuing their fight for freedom."

Hass Renamed President of Democrat Club

Herbert Hass was reelected president of the Palm Springs Area Democratic Club at the annual meeting held last night at the American Legion building.

Other officers named were: Thurman Arnold, Jr., vice president; Faye Holt, secretary, and Mrs. Rose Kornblatt, treasurer.

J. Malcolm Jared, unsuccessful candidate for Assembly in the recent election, formally announced his candidacy for 1958, and urged the Democratic group to start planning now for the campaign.

Featured speaker was Col. C. M. Nelson, a member of the board of governors of the American Association for the United Nations, who described U.N. activities, and the need for the world organization. He urged that a chapter of the A.A.U.N. be started here, and Miss Hilda Rost, 954 Ramon Road, volunteered to serve as organizational chairman.

Plans were completed for the dinner honoring Congressman-elect D. S. Saund, to be held at the Chi Chi Tuesday, Dec. 11. The new officers also will be installed at that time.

Approximately 100 persons attended the meeting.

Judge McCabe Takes Under Advisement Labor Dispute

A hearing on a temporary restraining order was held in the Superior Court in Indio this morning, and Judge Hilton McCabe took under advisement the plea for a preliminary injunction against pickets at the Hotel Oasis.

Arnold Rumwell, representing the Multnomah Operating Company, which does business as the Hotel Oasis, filed a complaint late in November, charging that the Culinary and Bartenders Union Local 535 failed to recognize an agreement with the Hotel Oasis, and on Thanksgiving Day began picketing.

LABOR ATTORNEY Lionel Richman, representing Local 535, filed four papers with the court this morning, a demurrer, which is a challenge to the complaint; an answer; a memorandum containing points of law, and an affidavit by local labor leader Pete Rees denying that an agreement existed between the Oasis and Local 535.

Rumwell told the court that he was amending his complaint to eliminate the Los Angeles Joint Board of Hotel and Restaurant Employees Union, who he said has no jurisdiction in this area.

The local Red Cross Branch is conducting its campaign for funds in coordination with the national drive which is currently under way. No house-to-house solicitation will be used, but persons wishing to donate may do so by sending it to Post Office Box 938, Palm Springs.

THE NATIONAL goal is $5,000,000 with these funds to aid refugees who have left the ravaged country of Hungary, together with those who remained behind to continue to fight the Russian troops with arms or strikes.

Shelby Langford, chairman of the local branch, appealed to all residents of this area to be generous with their contributions, to demonstrate to Hungarians that American hearts are with them in their fight for freedom.

He asked everyone, in considering a donation and the amount, to ask first:

"What price is freedom?"

Advisory Board Planned by New Safety Council

Plans for a vigorous membership campaign, discussion of committee appointments and functions of committees, plus decision to name an advisory board, were on the agenda of Palm Springs Safety Council last night at a meeting at the home of Barbara Foster, vice chairman of the group.

Don Miller, chairman, presided. The Council voted to appoint three committees, educational, engineering and membership. Chairman will be announced by Miller later.

The membership drive will get under way immediately and will endeavor to list as many citizens of the Village as members as possible.

On the proposed advisory board, Miller said, prominent citizens, versed in safety and traffic work, will be enlisted to aid the Council.

The group voted to purchase a moving picture projector for use in its educational programs and also voted to assist the Snow Creek Improvement Association in its appeal to the State Highway Commission to remedy a dangerous situation on Highway 111 where the canyon road turns off from the main highway.

Hungary Red Leaders Given New Warning

Labor Leaders Warn of 'Strike and Bloodshed'

BUDAPEST (AP)—Hungary's labor leaders warned the government bluntly today there will be a general strike, bloodshed and a new national tragedy if the current wave of arrests continues.

The warning came in a proclamation handed to puppet Premier Janos Kadar by the Central Workers Council of Budapest. It was the sharpest denunciation yet of Kadar's new "get tough" policy.

The Budapest council was scheduled to meet with Kadar in the late afternoon to get his reply. In the meantime, the tense capital remained quiet while the people waited to see what would happen.

IN THE UNEASY calm, angry groups of men stood talking at street corners under the menacing guns of Russian tanks. They were ready for anything following three days of demonstrations.

In the severest clash Thursday, Russian and Hungarian police bullets killed two demonstrators and injured scores. Budapest Radio also claimed that two police were killed, but the report was given little credence here.

The Budapest council issued its proclamation after 150 members of Budapest factory workers councils were arrested during the night. Police had picked up 50 others the night before.

OTHERS ARRESTED in the government's promised crackdown on "counter-revolutionaries and fascists" included talented young writer Jozsef Gati. Gati, seized in the hospital where he was recovering from a severe illness, was released after questioning.

As soon as they heard of the arrest of their elected leaders, workers in a dozen Budapest plants walked out on strike.

"It appears that the government has started an overnight hunt against workers councils throughout the nation," the Budapest council's proclamation said.

"If this continues, we shall lose the only chance of restoring order and creating normal conditions. If it continues, the confidence of the workers will be lost completely. The workers will turn against the government for good and the end will be a general strike, bloodshed and a new national tragedy."

'Acid' Hoodlums Given Terms of Two, Five Years

NEW YORK (AP)—Two of the three hoodlums convicted of conspiracy in the acid burning of labor columnist Victor Riesel were sentenced today to five years in prison. The third defendant was sentenced to two years.

Gondolfo Sheikie Miranti, 37, and Domenico Bando, 47, were sentenced to five years, the maximum prison penalty allowed, and in addition Miranti was fined $10,000 the maximum fine.

Leo Telvi, brother of Abe Telvi, who was named by the FBI as the man who actually threw the acid into Riesel's face last April 5, was sentenced to two years in prison. Abe Telvi was murdered July 28 because he was considered "too hot to live" by his fellow conspirators, the FBI said.

Miranti, Bando and Leo Telvi were convicted Thursday by an eight-man, four-woman jury which deliberated 90 minutes. The three were charged specifically with conspiring to transport Abe Telvi out of New York States after the blinding to avoid his prosecution.

Federal Judge William B. Herlands, who pronounced sentences, labeled Miranti as "the sergeant in the underground chain of command" which allegedly was masterminded by labor racketeer John John. Dio Dioguardi and included three other men still to be tried.

Union Accuses City of Unfair Labor Tactics

Suit Filed With National Labor Relations Board

A complaint was filed with the National Labor Relations Board yesterday against the City of Palm Springs, accusing the city of unfair labor practices, by Labor attorney Lionel Richman, representing the Culinary and Bartenders Union Local 535.

A legal move against the city's new Right-to-Work law, which was passed by the city council on Nov. 14, the complaint allegedly accuses the city of acting as an agent for the Palm Springs Employers Association which originally proposed the ordinance to the governing body.

THE LOS ANGELES office of the NLRB confirmed that the complaint was filed, but refused to explain the points of the complaint except that it charges unfair labor practices.

Union leaders were in Palm Springs to fight the Right-to-Work law passage, and at that time Thomas Pitts, president of the California Federation of Labor, said that the Unions would fight the law legally in the courts of the state. The Federation meets next Monday at the Roosevelt Hotel in Los Angeles, at which time that body is expected to take official action on the matter.

PALM SPRINGS Right-to-Work law becomes effective on Dec. 14, and at that time it is expected that Richman will file suit to test its constitutionality.

Jerry Bunker, Palm Springs city attorney, said this morning that the city of Palm Springs has not been notified of the filing of the complaint, and has no knowledge of what charges have been made.

Suspect in Triple Killing to Take Lie Detector Tests

SAN DIEGO (AP)—A 30-year-old vagrant may undergo a lie detector test within the next few days as part of a renewed investigation into the unsolved murders of three young boys near Chicago, police said today.

Police Chief A. E. Jansen said Richard Fred Ebert, formerly of Aurora, Ill., would be given a lie detector test as soon as authorities here receive additional information from Chicago police.

Ebert became a suspect in the triple slaying because of statements he made during routine questioning after he was arrested on a vagrancy charge Wednesday. He was quoted by police as saying "The three boys in the woods... It was terrible the way they were killed."

Improvement of City Animal Shelter to be Started Soon

Plans for the improvement of the Palm Springs Animal Shelter are under study by the City Engineering Department and construction is planned soon, William Mueller, humane officer said today.

The improvements are in line with recent council action to improve the functions of the City Humane department.

Additions will include increased run areas for impounded animals and more shade areas, including tree planting, to protect the animals from the summer sun. Also planned is an improved cat shelter, and more adequate facilities for disposing of dead animals.

MUELLER SAID that donations amounting to $350 had been received from citizens interested in the project. These will be fully utilized and will be supplemented by bud-

Military Defense Budget To be Increased Next Year

AUGUSTA, Ga., (AP)—Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson said after a conference today with President Eisenhower that the military defense budget for fiscal 1958 undoubtedly will be higher than the current budget.

Wilson said, however, that he anticipates no "substantial" change in armed forces manpower.

Wilson conferred with the President for two and a half hours, discussing the new military budget, now virtually in final form, with Budget Director Percival Brundage, Assistant Defense Secretary W. J. McNeil and Sherman Adams, the assistant to the President.

WILSON RETURNED to Washington in the early afternoon, but Brundage remained here for a conference with the President and Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission Saturday. Strauss will go over the new AEC budget with the chief executive and Brundage.

The current defense budget is $36.3 billion and Wilson estimated in October that higher prices might force a budget increase of between $1 billion and $3 billion next year.

Philippines Win UN Seat Over Czechoslovakia

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., (AP)—The Philippines, with the backing of the United States, won a first ballot victory over Russian backed Czechoslovakia today for a place in the U.N. Security Council.

The Philippines will take its seat on the council Jan. 1.

The Philippines received 51 votes to 20 for Czechoslovakia. Single votes were cast for Afghanistan, Spain and Yugoslavia.

The election was to fill a one-year unexpired term occasioned by the resignation of Yugoslavia in accordance with an agreement reached last year to break a 36-ballot deadlock between that country and the Philippines.

Western delegates, meanwhile, explored all possibilities of further action against Hungary in view of its refusal to admit Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold for an inspection visit.

Italians Ban Soviet Leader

ROME, (AP)—The Italian government has denied Soviet First Deputy Premier Mikhail Suslov permission to enter Italy, official sources said today.

Suslov had planned to come to Rome for the Italian Communist party congress which opens in Rome Saturday. A Moscow dispatch said he left Thursday by train for Rome.

Second El Disaster in Five Weeks

Four Car Train Crowded With 400 Passengers

CHICAGO, (AP)—Fire swept through two cars of a crowded rush-hour elevated train today, killing at least one person and injuring scores of others in the second major El accident in five weeks.

Fire swept the first two coaches of a jammed four-car train made up of both steel and wood coaches. It was crowded with standees. Some of the passengers made their way to the nearest El platform along a narrow wooden catwalk which borders the tracks. Others climbed down firemen's ladders to safety.

At the Cook County morgue, the dead man was identified as motorman Daniel Cullen, 47. He had been an elevated employee 27 years.

ST. FRANCIS Hospital in suburban Evanston said it treated at least 15 persons, Evanston Hospital 11, and Edgewater Hospital in Chicago seven. Lt. Albert Burns of the Rogers Park police said he believed the injured would total about 40, and said many passengers apparently suffered from shock.

Three of those at Edgewater Hospital were described as in critical condition.

Many of the passengers milled about aimlessly in nearby streets after descending from the platform. Some were shaking, obviously in shock.

"A couple of teenagers, a boy and a girl, came down and just stood right in the middle of Howard Street," said Pete Poulos, proprietor of a small restaurant near the scene. "They were shaking all over."

TRAFFIC ON the elevated line was halted as power was turned off in the accident area. Thousands of persons who ordinarily use the line to reach their jobs in the loop or elsewhere in Chicago were delayed in reaching their destinations.

Chicago Transit Authority officials said they were told that the train, southbound from Evanston, was supposed to have halted at the Howard St. Station, just north of the accident scene. Instead, they said, it proceeded past the station, came to a halt above the Jarvis Station, at the point where the fire broke out.

On the night of Nov. 6, a North Shore and an elevated train collided at the Wilson Ave. Station. Eight persons died and scores of others were injured. Wilson is about three miles south of the site of today's accident.

CHP Officer Shot to Death in Arrest Attempt; Others Capture Suspect

WHITTIER 48—California Highway Patrolman Elza Fitzpatrick, 40, was shot to death Thursday night as he attempted to arrest a suspect who earlier had wounded a sheriff's deputy trainee, sheriff's homicide officers reported.

Deputies then wounded and captured the fleeing suspect, Leilis Lyndel Jones, 37, Long Beach, who yelled, "You'll never take me alive!" as he attempted to escape.

OFFICERS SAID Jones shot and seriously wounded Bruce James Russell, 22, Compton, in the abdomen during a service station hold-up attempt. Russell was attending the sheriff's training academy and also worked at the station.

Fitzpatrick was investigating a wrecked and abandoned car some distance from the scene of the earlier shooting when Jones arrived in a taxi. The taxi driver said Jones owned the car. As the officer approached him, the suspect leaped out and shot the officer in the heart and neck.

A FEW SECONDS later a sheriff's radio car arrived and officers saw Jones running down the highway. He turned and shot at the deputies. Officers J. O. Barton and N. J. McGarry opened fire and one shot struck Jones in the leg. He surrendered immediately.

Fitzpatrick died en route to Murphy Memorial Hospital.

Remember Dec. 7, '41? 'Pearl Harbor' Not Possible Now

By PATRICK J. KILLEN
United Press Staff Correspondent
PEARL HARBOR, T.H. 48—A flash enemy attack conceivably could flatten Pearl Harbor again.

The immediate defenses of the big naval base itself seem almost as prone as they were 15 years ago this morning.

But it would not be another "Pearl Harbor." Today the United States Pacific Fleet is far-flung, combat ready and prepared to fend off and strike back with an atomic wallop.

The Navy learned the hard way 15 years ago today when Japanese dive bombers sneaked in over Pearl Harbor and knocked out 18 ships of the line. Never again will 86 warships be nestled in the sprawling port as they were on Dec. 7, 1941.

WITH RADAR RECEIVERS sweeping the sky and early warning planes extending the line far out to sea, enemy bombers would find the harbor deserted even if they got through to unload their bombs.

Pacific Fleet ships are spread out to Sydney, Australia, and Taipei, Formosa, from San Diego, Calif., to Sasebo, Japan.

The big, lumbering battlewagons have given way to fast attack carriers and rocket-launching smaller craft. Submarines which once blasted Japanese shipping beneath the water can now strike through the air with guided missiles packing an atomic war head.

Huge armadas no longer assemble here. Carriers and subs dart into the big Pacific base and hurry out in keeping with atom-age strategy. Cries of "The fleet's in" seldom are heard in Honolulu any more.

BATTLESHIP ROW where the California, the Maryland, the Oklahoma, the West Virginia, the Tennessee, the Arizona and the Nevada were moored 15 years ago, is all but deserted today. Only the Arizona, which took a 1,000-pound bomb down one of her stacks yesterday, remains as a reminder of yesterday's tragedy.

The Arizona lies in 35 feet of water, where 1,102 sailors were entombed in her gutted passageways and compartments. The victims included men from every American state.

The rusting hulk is one of the saddest military graves in the world. She does not look like a ship. Her superstructure was cut away, leaving only a few charred appendages. A wooden platform with a flagpole over what was the tripod mast is the marker above the water line.

DESPITE HER RUSTED appearance, however, the Arizona is the number one attraction of the 5,000 persons who come to Pearl Harbor every month. The Navy conducts an hour-long cruise around the harbor, tracing the destruction. A young enlisted man quietly describes the attack. Few can hold back tears.

Hawaii's Pacific War Memorial Commission hopes to turn the hulk into a national shrine, encasing the hull in concrete to provide a more permanent tomb for the

WE'RE OVER-ORGANIZED

Always willing to help less fortunate people of other nations, Americans opened their hearts and pocketbooks last week to aid the freedom-loving Hungarians who had escaped from their native land. More than 1,000 of them were admitted to the U. S. and assistance was given them immediately.

These people are not like starving, hopeless refugees that escaped oppression; they are courageous men and women who have won a victory against their Russian masters. True, their nation is not yet free—and may not be for some time—but the people of Hungary will gain their freedom. They will not be denied.

No wonder that Americans were quick to respond to the needs of these people. It was a case of admiration more than sympathy, actually. We only wish that our government could do more to help these courageous people. Our Red Cross and other groups—and many individuals—have sent aid to Hungary—but it has been only a little help. They cry for more. They cannot understand why free America does not help them in their fight for freedom.

Almost Too Much

Soon after the arrival of 1,004 Hungarians at Camp Kilner, N. J., last week six federal agencies and as many private aid organizations rushed in to help. It was a fine gesture of American sympathy and willingness to help, but also a good example of how over-organized this country has become. We have too many government bureaus—and probably too many volunteer organizations. The groups were reported to be falling over each other in their efforts to help.

The funds necessary to keep these bureaus and private groups going represent too great a percentage of the benefits and services they provide. We were all glad to see those Hungarians receive prompt assistance—but many of us couldn't help but notice how much more help was available than that actually needed.

It is as true at local, county and state levels—as at the national level. We just have too many organizations. And more are being formed right along. They come so thick and fast that it almost becomes difficult to spot the subversive ones. Better be on the lookout!

Perhaps we should be thankful that we live in a free country where we are permitted to have all these organizations for expression and assistance. On the other hand, it is a shame to over-do the privilege.

The Modern Mercenaries --- 2

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Americans not only raise more food and fiber than they can eat and wear; they raise more than they can harvest. Farm labor, according to official figures, is recorded as eight million persons, which includes farm owners, operators, handy men and casuals. This should be enough to do the chores; but because of our subsidized surplus crops we need 13 million farm laborers in harvest time.

In the summer we recruit high school and college youths, and we transport migratory workers from one end of the country to the other. Even so, there aren't enough Americans willing or able to take the farm jobs.

So we import some 500,000 foreigners from Mexico, Canada, the British West Indies, the Bahamas, the Philippines and—next year—from Japan. These aliens have contracts running from one month to three years with generous cancellation clauses. The cardinal rule about imported labor is that it must not be used to replace American workers. But this is largely an academic provision.

AMERICANS, EVEN when employed and on relief, are very slow to take "stupid jobs," which require bending the back. And the trends of education, job-training, trade-unionism and wage patterns all suggest that the reluctance of our people to put their hands in the soil is going to increase. The Labor Department expects imported labor to increase next year, and every year.

Pat Boone Changes Mind

HOLLYWOOD — Here we go again: Pat Boone, who changes his mind every other day, now swears he'll take a leave from his studies at Columbia U. to make his movie bow in 20th-Fox's "Bernadine." It starts shooting Feb. 4. Prior to that—the day after Christmas—Pat will make his British vaudeville debut.

American Legion's John Gantus Post of Los Angeles presented Bob Hope with its 1956 Americanism Award. In accepting the trophy Bob said, "This is the only thing I've collected all year—I've been betting on the Los Angeles Rams!"

Tickets for the Los Angeles premiere of "Around the World in 80 Days," Dec. 23 at the Carthy Circle, are going for anywhere from $20 to $100. Overheard at Ciro's: "I'm gonna make an honest woman of you—please return that ring I gave you!"

DIANA DOUGLAS, Kirk's ex, will wed producer Bill Darrid in Westport, Conn., Dec. 14. Harold Lloyd, Jr., broke in his new nightclub act at Hollywood's Cabaret Concert, a basement nitery where D. W. Griffith headquartered while shooting "The Birth of a Nation." Pat O'Brien, Spencer Tracy and Jimmy Cagney, all old friends, are rivals for the same role in Columbia's "The Last Hurrah." At the Legion Stadium here in Hollywood, I like to watch Frank Sinatra while his fighter, Charlie Green, is in the ring. Win or lose, Frank never shows any emotion. Marlon Brando is learning a Southern accent for his role as the jet pilot in "Sayonara." Jimmy Durante's crack "They laughed when I sat down to play the piano—how did I know it was Liberace's swimming pool?"

THE SURPLUS OF farm crops and the shortage of farm labor are both results of winning the war and losing the peace. The wretched practice of over-farming the land to raise an oversupply of crops began with World War II.

The dangerous precedent of importing foreign labor also had its inception in wartime. Peace came, but we did not return to peacetime farming. War ended, but we did not discontinue the fetching in of foreigners to be the hand-laborers in the fields.

Every schoolboy knows what happens to nations that turn to mercenaries to do their dirty work, whether it's fighting or delving in the earth. There are historians who write that the Roman Empire fell, not to the barbarians without but to the slaves within who did the work and the fighting while their Roman masters lazed on their couches.

THERE ARE OTHERS who write that the American South was retarded both in agriculture and industry because of its peculiar institution. Still others tell us that the American North could not bring the War Between the States to a quick merciful conclusion because of the recourse to hired substitutes in the draft. Be these things as they may, the mercenary system is inherently a sign of weakness.

It is a sign of weakness and this, at a time of war clouds, is not a matter of unconcern. In World War III, if it comes, we may not be nationally incinerated as the calamity howlers have said but most certainly we will be bombed this time and put on our mettle.

WE HAVE ONLY to recall the last war to see that there's a world of difference in the moral fiber of nations. France fell into a panic and lost the war when Hitler had done hardly more than blow a trumpet. The Italy of Mussolini threw up its hands and quit, and had to be occupied by the Germans, at the first Allied victories.

But Britain survived Dunkirk and the blitz; Russia lost every battle until Stalingrad, and the Germans were still fighting when Americans came in one side of Berlin and the Russians came in the other.

How would our country measure up? We won't know until we're tested. Meanwhile, there's time to worry a bit over a nation that's lost its will to work, lost touch with its soil, lost its sense of indignation against the leadership which brought us to this fix.

McCleery took the tongue-lashing in good grace, then quietly queried, "Don't you know that 'Dracula' passed into public domain two months ago—so that there was no reason to ask permission?" Whereupon the Universal execs subsided into complete and embarrassed silence.

They say two wrongs
Won't make a right,
But here are two
That really might.

Today's thesis is based on a communication from John W. Kramer, 2684, Cardillo Avenue. He combines two aggravations to police and ordinary citizens, suggesting that the one undo the work of the other.

"WE HAVE LITTER on our highways," he starts out, calling attention to the annoying way some people mess up our scenery, contrary to the law.

Then he remarks on the tendency of some of the younger set—the juveniles—to mess up the smooth course of things by petty crimes and some crimes not so petty.

Then his conclusion, which might solve something.

"WHILE THE TRASH-TOSSING motorist usually dashes away," Kramer wrote, "and is therefore seldom brought to justice, the juvenile is frequently caught, and then?"

"Then no one seems to know what to do with him."

"Why not have the law-disregarding juvenile clean up after the law-disregarding motorist?"

I HAVE BEEN accused of many things but today I am unjustly charged with being a home-breaker. Or, at least, of disrupting a beautiful friendship.

Last week, while at dinner with other members of The Sun Staff at the Chi Chi, one young lady spotted Bob Hope at a nearby table and said she was going to ask him for his autograph.

"Be different," I said. "Ask him if he wants your autograph."

Modestly, I hid my identity by writing that her "boy friend" made the suggestion.

THAT DID IT. Seems she told her real boy friend of the incident, neglecting to tell him of my suggestion. Now, this real boy friend reads these pieces every day and when he saw that item about the autograph incident and the term "her boy friend" he put two and two together and had no trouble in arriving at four.

And the fight was on. Just to set things straight, want him to know that I can recall when Babe Ruth was famous as a pitcher, not a batter, when footballers only had to go five yards in three down—that my brown locks are greying, I have a developing bald spot, perfectly harmless—and have four grandchildren.

And I never wrecked a home in my life. Wouldn't know how.

WHERE WERE YOU 15 years ago today at around 11 a. m. our time? I was, believe it or not, in church and walking up the aisle taking the collection when an embarrassed office boy from the paper I was with at the time, tip-toed after me, tapped me on the shoulder and said in a whisper which could be heard all over the church.

"You're wanted at the office right away. The Japs have just bombed hell out of Pearl Harbor."

Tuberculosis of the Lungs

At Christmas time we are reminded by the annual Seal sale, of tuberculosis, as an important disease. It is now some 47 years since I became interested in this condition. I can well remember that almost every other house in the area where I lived as a child had somebody with a chronic cough, and a disease called consumption.

The fight, however, is not over. The battle still wages. There are as yet approximately 450,000 individuals in this country with active tuberculous disease.

Consumption, which was tuberculosis of the lungs, has been as far back as medical history records, until that time, the most important cause of death in the civilized world.

In these United States, in 1909, it was causing the death of 175 people per 100,000 population, and was known as the "Captain of Men of Death."

TUBERCULOSIS of the lung is an infectious disease. The germ or bacillus which causes it was the first germ to be isolated, and it was discovered by Dr. Robert Koch in Germany in 1882.

Most of the infections which took place occurred in childhood. They produced massive swelling of the glands of the neck, and the glands around the roots of the lung, and in many instances such glands might abscess, penetrate a blood vessel, producing tuberculous meningitis and other manifestations known as quick consumption.

Quick consumption meant the patient died in six to eight weeks. Fortunately, the great cause of dissemination of the germ was discovered. This was tuberculosis in cattle, particularly in milk cows. At one time, in the year of 1922, in the city where I lived, six per cent of the milk distributed was found to contain live tubercle bacilli.

THIS CONDITION was subsequently corrected, and in our country today we are almost 100 per cent free of such infection due to the tuberculin testing of cattle, and the destruction of those found diseased, along with the secondary precaution of careful pasteurization of milk.

We have come a long way down the road in the eradication of this disease. In the past year the mortality reached the lowest level of 10 deaths per 100,000 population, and it has lost its two bars of a "Captain of Death," and has dropped to eighth place in our mortality list.

The technique of lung collapse through injection of gases, or the compression of areas surgically in the removal of some ribs, is also practiced. It is, however, most important to remember that tuberculosis is as yet not completely conquered. The irreducible minimum of this disease is a death rate of zero. Our complete conquest should be the absolute disappearance of tuberculosis.

WE DO HAVE SPECIFIC medication which controls the infection, and enables the resisting tissues of the body to encompass the disease areas. But unfortunately, in many individuals this ability to control the infection is lost and the disease carries on.

Surgical methods have been devised and have been improved so that in many instances portions of the lung which are diseased, can be removed.

Unedited

Come January 7 at noon the beginning of a new deal for this part of Riverside will be a-borning.

At that time Curtis Chamberlain, former Riverside city councilman who defeated Roman Warren, will be sworn into office, and those who are in the know are walking about impatiently waiting for that moment to arrive.

At that precise moment, when Chamberlain takes his seat, the regime of Willie Jones, chairman of the Riverside County Board of Supervisors, and the majority votes that he could and did always pull out of his pocket will die.

This is the fervent hope of all around the Riverside County Court House and it certainly is the hope of everybody who has been wishing for a change in the picture. They believe it will take place.

TALKED TO GEORGE Berkey, our representative on the board, yesterday and he too feels that a change may take place and although he didn't say so—it will be for the better in Riverside county government.

Also standing right beside him when I asked him to come up with some answers to questions I put to him was Lloyd Loveland, member of the Riverside County Planning Commission—a body which has taken or rather had to swallow some bitter pills handed down by Jones and his two friends on the board.

"There is an air of great anticipation that things may change for the better around the Riverside County Court House," said Loveland. The court house there, as everybody must know, also houses the seat of our county government.

THREE WEEKS AGO in this column I reported a telephone interview with Curtis Chamberlain. The way this successful businessman talked should give us neglected property holders and citizens of the desert area great hope. He said that he would fight for additional county police protection. That he would strive for better pay for the Sheriff's office and a proper re-alignment of the supervisorial districts.

George Berkey, our supervisor or, (and we should be proud to have him represent us) said that he had a long conversation with the newly elected supervisor.

He did not in so many words officially sanction everything that I reported. He skipped around the edges, not to dodge my questions, but in such a manner that I feel everything I reported previously as a result of my conversation with Chamberlain is going to come true.

As a result of that interview yesterday morning, I predict that Jones will lose his majority on the County Board of Supervisors; that Beaumont and Banning will be taken out of our district. That this district will be completely all desert. And Berkey said he certainly would like that because his district is so large.

I FURTHER PREDICT that the sheriff's office will be taken care of and the great turn-over in trained personnel, which costs taxpayers of this county so much money, will eventually stop. Stop because members of this department will receive a living wage. That additional men will be employed.

And there exists the strong possibility that Mr. Willie Jones may lose the chairmanship of the county board of supervisors not long after the new member takes his seat.

And that right now a survey to determine if a substitution for the sheriff's office to be located nearby is under way and I believe this station will be an eventuality.

And I also learned that the first business before the new board of supervisors will be the re-alignment of the supervisorial districts. I am so hopeful that all of this will take place I think I'll go out and buy myself a sarsaparilla.

BY THE WAY, Mack Stonehille of Manchon Pools came in to inform me that beautiful Vera Krupp von Bohlen and Halbach, is in Palm Springs. She just purchased the controlling interest in the New Frontier Hotel, Las Vegas. Her purchase was approved by the State of Nevada Tuesday. She is the divorced wife of the owner of the Krupp works in Germany.

We need more beautiful ladies in this town and she is one.

Southern India Azaleas May Be Grown in Village

Southern India Azaleas (southern India azaleas) are new and spectacular members of the Azalea family — beautiful and hardy. They were developed in the Deep South of the United States, and may also be successfully grown in Palm Springs.

The Indicas (actually misnamed because they are not native to India) are evergreen and are fast growing, mostly in singles. Mediums are from three to five feet, dense and late blooming; tall varieties reach over five feet and are fast growing in an open manner with earlier blooms.

Among the best known Southern India varieties are Pride of Mobile, Phoenicia and Fielders' White. These new varieties are gaining popularity in the West, and while not in stock at all local nurseries, may be obtained for you.

HERE IS ANOTHER helpful kitchen companion for the housewife—a well-planned mixing center cabinet which contains space enough for all the regular ingredients for most any type of recipe. Conveniently stationed above it could be a sliding spice rack, the right combination for say, a tasty cake.

Well Planned Mixing Center Key to Better Kitchen Work

Any homemaker will tell you that there are two key points to making the best of your kitchen: adequate storage space and putting this space where it is most convenient for the housewife.

And what could be more logical than a mixing center with space for all the ingredients for your favorite recipe with a spice rack situated at arm's length away? Two designs shown here accomplish just this.

FREE PLANS for both the mixing center cabinet itself and the handy sliding spice rack may be obtained by writing the Douglas Plywood Association, Tacoma, 2, Washington.

Here again is a case where the plan can be used as is or may be altered to suit individual needs. Few kitchens are the same and occasionally variations from the basic plan design are necessary.

THE MIXING CENTER cabinet provides beautifully arranged space for all common ingredients for cakes, pies and other delicacies. The spice rack immediately above is a natural in this position.

THE SLIDING SPICE rack as it is shown in a close-up view. It contains space for all types of bottles or cans whether they be tall or short.

The sliding spice rack contains a tuck-away shelf utilizing the maximum available space and providing for tall bottles as well as small cans and boxes. There's room for variation whenever an unusual kitchen design is encountered.

Mrs. A. J. L. Hutchinson of Banning, was the speaker. Mrs. Arnold Anderson, Club president presided over the business session, when plans were made for a Christmas party for the school, and additional library facilities.

Attend Portland P.O.W. Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon J. Krysan, 677 Calle de Marcus, are in Portland, Oregon where they will attend the Prisoners of War convention of the Workers of Wake, Guam and Cavite at the Benson Hotel. Mr. Krysan was taken prisoner at Wake Island and was confined in a Japanese camp in Japan for 44 months. The Villagers will return home on Monday.

Too Much Turkey? Never Too Much

There's little risk of buying too much turkey for Christmas. For ways to use leftovers are numerous, says an instructor in institution administration at Michigan State University.

Grace Masuda recommended cold sliced turkey sandwiches, turkey a la king, turkey salad with sliced almonds, turkey chow mein, cream of turkey soup and turkey croquettes as appetizing ways to use turkey leftovers.

Use scissors to cut parsley or chives. Wet them to cut dates, figs, marshmallows.

N. J. Burmesch Married to Minnesota Girl

In St. Luke's Church in St. Paul, Minnesota, on December 1, Miss Marguerite Breen became the bride of Nicholas J. Burmesch of Desert Hot Springs. Rev. Quintin F. Kennedy officiated at the early morning ceremony.

Mrs. John Hoffman was matron of honor for her aunt, and Mr. Hoffman was best man. Their sons, John and Thomas Hoffman, were servers at the nuptial mass. The bride had been director of public relations for the Minnesota Tuberculosis and Health Association and has been active in club and civic work in St. Paul.

After an extended motor trip through the Southwest and Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Burmesch will be at home in Desert Hot Springs.

Christmas Tea Will Be December 11

Artists from the University of Redlands will present the program of songs, instrumental numbers, and readings at the Christmas Tea of the Women's Circle of the Community Church on December 11, at 2 p.m., in the main sanctuary, according to Mrs. Merle Hancock, program chairman. The Christmas Story will be presented by Miss Helen Oberman, a reader. There will be numbers by accordionist, Eugene Welter, and songs from Miss Beth Cheadle, vocalist. Christmas carols will be sung by the audience.

Refreshments at the tea table will be prepared by members of the official board of the Women's Circle under the direction of Mrs. Jack Williams, tea chairman. The meeting will be presided over by Mrs. Don Macpherson, president, who invites all Villagers to attend and promises them an enjoyable afternoon.

Easy Entree

A big bowl of fruit salad, served with this unusual type of dressing, makes a popular lunch entree. Put several types of fresh fruit into the salad, then prepare the dressing this way. Mix an envelope of old-fashioned French salad dressing mix according to printed instructions. Then combine 1/2 cup of the dressing with 2 tablespoons of pineapple juice and 1/4 cup of chopped toasted pecans. Shake well, and pour on the fruit just before serving.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture says that internal steam helps cook potatoes during baking. Piercing the skin lets that valuable steam escape. And the best test for doneness is to press to see whether the potato is soft, rather than jabbing it with a fork.

Baking time-saver: When making biscuits, pat the dough onto a cookie sheet and cut it into squares with a knife. This saves flouring the board and rolling and re-rolling the scraps leftover from cutting round biscuits.

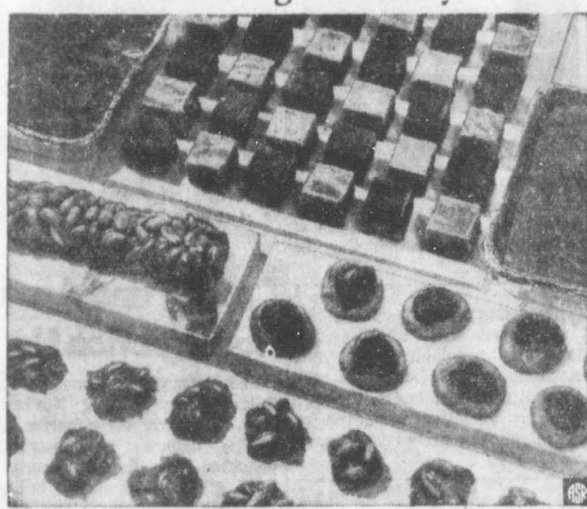

Spaghetti Sauce

Add a dash of poultry seasoning to spaghetti sauce, along with a few mushrooms and chopped meat. The blend of spices adds unusual flavor to the sauce.

Plum Slenderizing

If it's calories you are counting, eat as much skimmed milk cottage cheese as you like. Add a few drained canned purple plums to add flavor and a pretty color to the table.

Two-Tone Fudge—Holiday Treat

Pure heaven for the youngsters is this unusual Two-Tone Fudge — creamy rich chocolate, teamed with the pleasant saltiness of peanut butter. It's all from one simple basic recipe combination of smooth evaporated milk, caramels and sugar. To one-half add peanut butter, and to the other half, add semi-sweet chocolate morsels. Evaporated milk lends smoothness and rich flavor to this versatile fudge. The high milk solid content of evaporated milk helps prevent formation of "sugary" crystals, resulting in velvety texture without beating. Make this wholesome candy in squares, swirls dropped from a spoon on waxed paper or foil, peanut clusters, or rolls made by shaping cooled fudge into logs and rolling them in salted peanuts.

TWO-TONE FUDGE

1 cup evaporated milk 3/4 cup semi-sweet chocolate morsels
2 cups sugar 1/2 cup peanut butter
3/4 pound (14) caramels

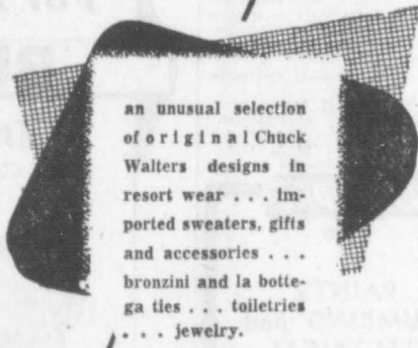

Combine evaporated milk and sugar in 2-quart saucepan. Add caramels. Place over low heat and cook, stirring constantly, until sugar is dissolved and mixture comes to a boil. Increase heat and boil 4 minutes, stirring constantly, until sugar is dissolved and mixture comes to a boil. Increase heat and boil 4 minutes, stirring constantly. To 1 1/2 cups of the mixture add the semi-sweet chocolate morsels and stir until smooth; turn into greased 7 or 8-inch square pan. To remaining mixture add peanut butter and stir until smooth; turn into pan over chocolate mixture. Chill until firm; cut into squares.

YIELD: Approximately 2 pounds.

Director Says Beauty Is As Beauty Does

NEW YORK (AP)—A leading Hollywood director says you may be a beautiful doll and not know it. Walter Lang, director of "The King and I" and "With a Song in My Heart," meets beautiful movie stars every day. But his idea of beauty doesn't stop with surface glamour.

Lang said real beauty is a lasting quality, much more than a lovely face. He believes it shows in soul and character. "Beauty is anything that strikes you—an individual—as beautiful. But the next person might not agree."

Lang believes that you will find beauty surprisingly often if you look for it.

"Take for instance a picture Lang will direct next year, "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn."

The little girl in the story was looking for beauty and found it in a tree pushing up through the cement. Someone else, he said, might have seen only a dirty courtyard and just another tree out of thousands in Brooklyn. The little girl had the gift of seeing through face values. And this is what Lang said he does in looking for an actress.

"Concentrate on personality, and you can make people think you are beautiful."

Mystery is another quality this director believes adds to glamour. Something he said Hollywood has neglected recently. He cited as one example, the woman he considers the most beautiful ever in films, Greta Garbo.

Another beauty was Carole Lombard, who, Lang said, "was magnificent; she had a spark nobody has found since."

Lang also rates Marlene Dietrich, Hedy Lamar, Irene Dunn, Jeanne Crain, and Elizabeth Taylor among the world's most beautiful women.

Londoners Visit in Palm Desert

Recent visitors to Shadow Mountain Club in Palm Desert were Dr. and Mrs. W. A. McAdam, who stayed at Firecliff Lodge for the past two weeks. Dr. McAdam, C.M.G., L.L.D., is Agent General in the United Kingdom for the government of British Columbia, Canada.

Mr. McAdam is a Companion of The Most Noble Order of St. Michael and St. George which honor was bestowed upon him by the late King George at Buckingham Palace. During his recent official visit to British Columbia, he was awarded an honorary degree in law by the University of British Columbia.

He was also inducted as an Honorary Indian Chief, in the Kwiksutaneuk Tribe by the native Indians of British Columbia.

Further honors which he received during his recent visit to the Province was the golden key of the freedom of the city of Vancouver, also the appointments of honorary life memberships of both the Canadian Red Cross Society and the Vancouver Board of Trade.

Dr. and Mrs. McAdam left Palm Desert on Saturday bound for New York where they will sail on the S. S. Queen Elizabeth tomorrow and Dr. McAdam will resume his duties as Agent General at British Columbia House, 1 Regent Street, London, about the 15th of the month.

Both Dr. and Mrs. McAdam said they had thoroughly enjoyed their first visit to Palm Desert—wonderful weather and hospitality to match.

Their hosts at Firecliff Lodge were Mr. and Mrs. Owen Hudson.

Newcomers Here From New Jersey

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Plettner and three daughters arrived two weeks ago to take up residence in the house they purchased early this year on Avenue 35, off Date Palm Drive.

Mr. Plettner, formerly assistant supervisor of the U.S. Trust Company of New York, located on Wall Street, is now retired.

The newcomers have twin six-year-olds, Linda Jane and Diane Hall, who attend Cathedral City grammar school, and an older daughter Nancy Ann, who is enrolled at Palm Valley School.

The family, who formerly lived in Westwood, New Jersey, will make this their permanent residence.

If you want to cut the amount of wax used in household chores, first dampen the waxing cloth, wring it dry and then pick up the wax. You'll find this keeps the wax from being absorbed into the fibers of the cloth.

Palm Springs Business Women's Club will hold its annual Christmas party Monday, December 10, at Deep Well.

Santa will be there to greet the members and their guests and present them with surprise gifts.

Club President Tess Potter will start the evening off with a short address.

Adding to this gala affair will be the breaking of the colorful Mexican Christmas Pinatz to shower a deluge of gay little gifts.

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

MELBOURNE, (AP) — The Olympics are supposed to promote international friendliness but the dove of peace is fluttering nervously over the games today with scorched and tattered wings.

The British are complaining that their Australian cousins haven't been friendly enough. The Japanese receive cheers here and there but their reception is cool on the whole from a people who still remember all too vividly the perils of a decade ago.

And all the bitterness and hatred which flamed in the streets of Budapest are felt whenever the Hungarians "play" the Russians.

The most violent contest of the Olympics undoubtedly occurred in the Hungarian-Russian water polo match. It started in tense bitterness and ended in bloodshed and a near riot.

IT WAS LIKE watching a pool full of tiger sharks. The water in the Olympic pool was chilly but it didn't cool the tempers of the seven determined Hungarians from the moment they looked down the watery field and locked eyes with the Soviet swimmers.

In the first scrimmage a Hungarian whipped an elbow into moustached Russian's stomach and then spat water like a harpooned whale. The Russian threw a punch and, as he was sent to the penalty box, a powerfully built man in the stands rose in his seat and his face was purple as he shook furious fists at the Russians.

THE HUNGARIANS began to "play" the officials and the gallery then, and the Gabor sisters would have been proud of their histrionics. Their faces were offended—but under the water they were busily offensive.

And then, with Hungary leading 4-0, they forgot all about the "game." Fist fights were breaking out all over the pool and it reached a climax when a raging Russian smashed his head into a Hungarian's face and blood streamed from a slashed eyebrow.

Red-hot Hungarians poured down along the edge of the pool. The Russians gathered in a protective knot and police charged along the pool to get the irate spectators back to their seats.

"The final whistle was blown in this match," worried officials announced, cutting short the game.

Peace, at the Olympics. It's wonderful.

Pat McCormick Wins Two Gold Medals Second Time

Rallies to Win Platform Title At Melbourne

Becomes First Diver To Take Double Medal Honors Twice

By LEO H. PETERSON

United Press Sports Editor
MELBOURNE, (AP) — Plucky Pat McCormick of Lakewood, Calif., completed an unprecedented "double slam" of Olympic diving titles tonight by coming from behind to win the platform event in a 1-2-3 sweep by Americans.

Victor in the spring board championship earlier, the 26-year-old housewife thus became the first diver in history to win two gold medals in two Olympiads. She mopped up both events at Helsinki four years ago.

MRS. MCCORMICK, closing out her competitive career, gave the United States its 32nd gold medal of the games and its only consolation on the final day of competition for American athletes.

Mrs. Juno Stover Irwin of Glendale, Calif., finished second and Paula Jean Myers of Glendora, Calif., was third. The clean sweep added 19 more points to the U.S. total.

Earlier tonight, however, 17-year-old Murray Rose and chubby Lorraine Crapp of Australia ruined other American chances of closing the gap on Russia's overwhelming lead in the team race.

ROSE GROUND out a victory in the men's 1,500-meter freestyle, whipping Tyoshi Yamanaka of Japan by three yards and world record-holder George Breen of Buffalo, by 13 in 17 minutes, 58.9 seconds.

Miss Crapp reversed an earlier defeat at 100 meters by her speedy teammate, Dawn Fraser, and won the women's 400-meter freestyle with ease in the new Olympic time of 4:54.6. Sylvia Ruuska, 14-year-old star from Berkeley, Calif., was third.

Ercolo Baldini, 23-year-old Italian butcher, earlier won the grueling 116-mile cycling road race and Russia picked up another gold medal in gymnastics.

RUSSIA BOOSTED its point total to 709 by adding 14 1/2 more in women's gymnastics, four for a third place finish in water polo, and one for sixth place in the team road race standings. The Soviet water polo team downed Germany 6-4 for the bronze medal.

American athletes failed to score on the afternoon program, one finishing next to last in the bike race and women gymnasts being judged last in two events.

However, the final water polo placings gave the United States two points for a fifth place and a re-adjustment of Greco-Roman wrestling standings added two and one half more points to the U.S. total that now reads 563.

Centella Wins In 4th by TKO

LOS ANGELES, (AP) — Kid Centella, colorful lightweight champion of Nicaragua, today negotiated for a January bout with Carlos Ortiz after stopping veteran Ralph Cervantes in Thursday night's 10-round main event at Olympic Auditorium.

The bout was stopped in the fourth round when Centella, 136, landed a staggering left hook to the jaw that sent Cervantes, 135, Rockford, Ill., into the ropes. Cervantes suffered a cut eye in the opening stanza and was bleeding from the nose when Referee Frank Van called his quits.

It was Centella's third straight win at the Olympic.

Valdez Signs to Meet British Champ

LONDON, (AP) — Cuban heavyweight Nino Valdez, who scored a technical knockout over Dick Richardson of Wales Tuesday night, has signed to meet British heavyweight champion Joe Erskine at Earls Court Arena, Feb. 19. Neither boxer is ranked among the top 10 heavyweights.

PAULINE BETZ ADDIE, noted woman tennis star and holder of many net titles, right, and Magda Rurac, tennis pro at Shadow Mountain Club will stage an exhibition match on the club courts tomorrow starting at 2 p.m. The event is open to the public free of charge.

34 Hopeful Fishermen Have Healthy Day--But No Fish

Thirty-four hopeful fishermen spent a healthful day in the sunshine on Salton Sea in the 1956 edition of the annual Fish Derby—but not a one came back with anything, although they covered the length and breadth of the desert sea, from reed patches to deep water.

Dick Lindsley, research biologist assigned to Salton Sea and Bob Mason, warden, expressed disappointment as no fish were brought in.

Lindsley estimated 30,000 curvina in Salton Sea waters now and looks for an increase soon. He said "the fish are there but maybe not in sufficient numbers to make fishing easy."

Among Villagers there for the day were S. LeMen, L. J. Maidhof and Les. Wamsley. Fishermen registered for the event from many parts of Southern California.

The derby was sponsored by Helen Burns of Salton Sea Beach who said another will be held next year with "better luck."

Annual Tamarisk Pro-Am Tourney Starts Tomorrow

Leading pros from many parts of the state and from out-of-state will tee off with top amateurs and members of Tamarisk Country Club early tomorrow on the first round of 18 in the annual 36-hole Pro-Amateur tournament.

All three of the local courses will be represented with George Howard of O'Donnell, Jimmy Hines of Thunderbird and Ellsworth Vines of the host Tamarisk club, entered.

Some of the other pros who will take part in the play are Walter Duda, Jerry Barber, Ed Vines, Fay Coleman, Smiley Quick, Joe Moore of New York, Eddie Joseph of San Francisco, Stanley Kertes, Rod Funseth and many others.

Each pro will be teamed with three amateurs, one of them his invited guests and the other two, Tamarisk members.

Forty-four foursomes have been entered in the two-day tournament, 17 players in all.

Today is being devoted to practice rounds by pros and amateurs and a pre-tournament buffet to-night at the Club will get the weekend under way. Trophies will be awarded Sunday night.

HOLYOKE, Mass., (AP) — Former welterweight champion Kid Gavilan today faced indefinite suspension from Massachusetts rings for cancelling a scheduled bout here next Monday with Billy Lynch of Hartford, Conn.

Ease PGA Rules To Allow Young Pros to Compete

CLEARWATER, Fla., (AP) — The Professional Golfers Association convention has recommended that restrictions be lifted to allow a number of top-ranking young pros to compete for the PGA championship.

Current PGA rules prohibit a professional from playing in the big tournament until he has been a PGA member for five years.

The resolution, passed Thursday, asks that the association's executive committee invite as many of the young pros in the top 25 money winners "as it sees fit."

This would enable such outstanding players to compete in tournament as Dow Finsterwald, Gene Littler, Mike Souchak, Bill Casper, Bob Rosburg, Billy Maxwell, Don January, Bo Wininger, Arnold Palmer, Ernie Vossler, Gardner Dickinson, Jr., and Bud Holscher.

Delegates here were optimistic that the executive committee would adopt the recommendation effective with the 1957 PGA tournament at the Miami Valley Country Club, Dayton, Ohio.

Believe PCC to Lighten Stiff Grid Penalties

Optimism Grows at Troy and UCLA As New Rumors Heard

By RON BURTON

United Press Sports Writer
BEVERLY HILLS, (AP) — The question of whether still eligibility penalties will be erased against UCLA and the University of Southern California was fired anew today with optimistic speculation that at least some action will be taken to "ease" the penalties imposed upon the two schools.

Pacific Coast Conference representatives adjourned their four-day meeting here Thursday without taking up the question. But a PCC official indicated that the conference might restore at least some of the eligibility taken away from UCLA and USC for illegal financial aid to athletes.

THE POSSIBLE easing of the penalties would end a threat that the two schools might bolt the conference. Athletes at both schools lost a year's eligibility under the PCC edict. If the penalties are upheld UCLA and USC juniors who played football this season can't suit up against next season.

The hint of possible softening of the ruling came from Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, of the University of California and spokesman for the PCC faculty representatives.

Seaborg told a press conference that the PCC officials had not touched the disputed question. But he added, "Speaking for myself if easing of penalties might or could come up at the January combined meetings." He referred to a meeting of conference faculty representatives with PCC presidents and chancellors.

Still another indication that the conference may reverse its stand came Wednesday when the faculty representatives voted to support USC in an appeal to the NCAA for reduction of even stiffer penalties slapped on both USC and UCLA by the NCAA for the same violations.

UCLA LAST WEEK threatened to pull out of the PCC but this move apparently fizzled when PCC officials didn't scare easily. USC reportedly was awaiting the outcome of the UCLA move to make up its mind.

The faculty representatives in closing business authorized UCLA to resume normal relationships with the Bruin Bench, the bolster club which was outlawed by the PCC for its part in raising illegal funds for Bruin athletes. No action, however, was taken in the case of the banned Young Men's Club of Westwood Village. The group reportedly was blacklisted for serving as the disbursing agent for athletic aid funds raised by the Bruin Bench.

Seaborg said also that two University of California booster clubs, the Southern Seas and the East Bay Grid Club, had been reinstated to good standing.

Ellsworth to Head Sports Car Club

Bill Ellsworth is slated to become the new president of the Palm Springs Sports Car Club as result of a meeting held by the organization at Blue Skies Trailer Park this week.

Ellsworth was the only candidate nominated for the presidency and was unanimously endorsed.

Plans were discussed for the proposed Sports Car rally on December 1. A week-day rally is also planned for those unable to attend on Sunday.

Brundage Thinks His Group Should Win Peace Prize

MELBOURNE, (AP) — Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee, hinted today that his organization was worthy of nomination for a Nobel peace prize for solving problems of international significance during the current games.

The games' top official said it was no secret that the committee had been mentioned for a Nobel prize.

Brundage credited the IOC with making possible "an Olympic truce" in Hungary which permitted a team from that divided nation to compete in the games.

"It was a triumph for sports," he said.

Brundage brushed aside incidents such as the bloody battle between Hungary and Russia in their water polo match Thursday.

"People are only human and these conflicts have been at a minimum," he said. "I think we have had a reasonable amount of harmony."

Swaps Given Two Awards In TRA Vote

MIAMI, Fla., (AP) — Swaps, the California-colt who set four world records and equaled a fifth this year, ruled the thoroughbred world today as the American champion for 1956.

The brilliant colt, currently recovering from a fractured cannon bone at Garden State Park, also was hailed as the handicap champion. The plaques for both divisions were awarded Thursday night at the Thoroughbred Racing Association's annual dinner.

Other TRA awards were presented to Arthur Rickey of United Press for the best photograph of a thoroughbred racing subject during the year and to Snowden Carter of the Baltimore Sun for the best newspaper story on racing.

Sooners, Vols Get Two Each on Team

NEW YORK, (AP) — Oklahoma and Tennessee, the twin terrors of the 1956 college football season, each placed two stars on the 22-man Look Magazine All-America team, it was announced today.

Halfback Tommy McDonald and center Jerry Tubbs were the Sooners named to the squad, while Tennessee was represented by tailback Johnny Majors and end Buddy Cruze.

Olympiad to End Saturday

Highly Successful 16th Annual Games To Close with Ceremonies; Rome Next in 1960

By ROBERT MILLER

United Press Sports Writer
MELBOURNE, (AP) — The closing ceremony of the 16th Olympic Games Saturday will be at far less grandeur than the opening ceremonies Nov. 22 because of an already large departure of athletes and officials.

Some of the 68 participating countries will be represented in the march-in only by Australian placard bearers.

But tickets for the 100,000 capacity main stadium were sold out weeks ago and there will be a full house for the rites that will close the games, already declared a huge success.

THE GAMES were favored by fine weather despite the cold and rain which preceded the opening for more than a fortnight. Records have been broken galore despite opening criticism of a "slow" track in the main stadium.

Police at the main stadium have had an easy time. A few drunks have been their only trouble. But that was expected, of course, with the many bars in operation.

The closing ceremonies will follow the game between Russia and Yugoslavia for the soccer gold medal. The kickoff is scheduled at 2:15 p.m. 8:15 p.m. EST Friday.

The bearers of the flags of the competing nations will march into the arena in single file, in the same order as for the opening ceremony.

THAT MEANS Greece will lead as the originator of the Olympic Games, followed by the nations in alphabetical order with Afghanistan first, and with Australia last as the host nation.

The delegations will take up their positions in a semi-circle behind the special tribune.

Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee; Australian Prime Minister R. G. Menzies, the president of the games; and the lord mayor of Melbourne, Sir Frank Selleck, will proceed to the tribune.

The Greek flag will be hoisted

Dr. C. E. Smith to Tell Southwestern Association About Desert Museum

Dr. C. E. Smith, director of the Desert Museum, has been invited to present a paper on the Museum and its general activities before the Southwestern Anthropological Association's meeting at UCLA tomorrow, Dec. 8.

Because of this opportunity to bring the Museum to the attention of a scientific audience, the Saturday evening program will be cancelled. The proposed program was to have been a travel film, as it was not possible to obtain a speaker for the evening.

The field trip for Saturday, to an undisclosed destination, will leave the Museum as scheduled at 10 a.m. Terry Folwell will lead the group, and those participating should be prepared for a moderate hike into a dry area, and bring lunch and water.

A new exhibit, in the form of a miniature habitat group of Desert Bighorn Sheep, has been installed in the Fluorescent Minerals Room temporarily; this will be properly displayed as soon as building materials can be obtained to construct the necessary base and front.

Attendance continues at an unusually high figure, and all evidence points to a record season again this year, with the day-time visitors continuing to average well over one hundred a day.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC Railroad Station today is sporting a new paint job, inside and out. Sandy Cooper, traveling passenger agent, right, is showing Chamber of Commerce manager Jimmy Cooper the newly painted building, during what they termed an inspection tour. The freight section, which is adjoining the depot, has also been plastered and painted. (Desert Sun Photo)

WHEN CITIZENS STARTED reporting to the city engineer's office that their street signs were missing, Frank Hamerschlag investigated and found that three "Racquet Club Road" signs were missing. There have been reports in the past of the same sign missing. However, the engineer did make one startling discovery, that the signs were probably taken as souvenirs. Pictured above is a sign on the southwest corner of Palm Canyon Drive and Racquet Club Road that is still in place. The one across the street from this one, and others at the corners of Indian Avenue and Monte Vista are missing. The lower sign in the photo signifies Hamerschlag's plea to the culprits, "STOP." Wanted---Place to Meet by Area Business Group

Wanted — Luncheon Facilities! This was the clarion sounded Tuesday by the Cathedral City Area Business Association, forced to postpone its bi-weekly luncheon meeting, due to the fact that the Farmhouse Restaurant, the former meeting place, has ceased to serve lunches.

Other restaurants in the Cathedral City area, approached with the problem of a regular meeting place, were either closed on the designated day or unable to meet the capacity requirements.

Any restaurant in the area with facilities to handle these luncheon meetings is requested to contact Ivan Sharp, president of the association, at 8-8303.

Author Is First Forum Speaker Sunday Evening

Richard L. Tobin, author, newspaperman, war correspondent and television news commentator, will be first speaker on the Community Forum Series at the Jewish Community Center, 332 West Alejo Road, at 8 p.m., Sunday, Dec. 9.

Nephew of the famous author, Ring Lardner, Tobin follows a family tradition as a writer. His father was an editor of newspapers, books and magazines for 40 years.

Most of his professional life has been spent working at every type of assignment on the New York Herald Tribune. He has covered many of the "Big" stories of the last two decades here and abroad. His book, "Invasion Journal," was based on his experiences during the action of World War II. In 1952 he covered both political conventions.

The subject of Tobin's address will be "Washington Review," with emphasis on the Middle East situation, and will be followed by a question period.

There will be five speakers in the entire series with "A Look into the Future" as the overall theme. Tickets are available in books of five at a discount or may be purchased singly at the door. Further information may be secured by calling 5262.

World Needs UN, Speaker Tells Lions Members

"The world must have the United Nations, we can all see that," Col. C. M. Nelson told Lions Club members and their guests, meeting at the Chi Chi yesterday.

Col. Nelson is a member of the board of governors for the American Association for United Nations.

He said that one reason for much of the criticism of the UN is that people expect too much of it too quickly. He said that since its organization, it has probably prevented World War III seven times.

Speaking of the controversial UNESCO, he said that it is also much misunderstood.

Culver Nichols was program chairman for the day and introduced the speaker.

Club President Joe Henderson presided.

FOR SALE GENTLEMAN'S ESTATE

In The Most Desirable Location in Palm Springs Just Opposite the O'Donnell Golf Course

Here is the completely fenced in estate you may have been looking for all your life and couldn't replace today at more than twice the cost. Notice the corner location — the landscaping — roof top view of the house and the pent-house in the distance. It is a dream come true for somebody.

Pedestrian entrance to this wondrous estate opens like a wonderland oasis here on the desert. The spacious grounds beautifully landscaped including the land and outside fencing are worth $40,000 today.

Gracious outdoor living beside a spacious swimming pool completely filtered and heated. This cloistered location for family and friends permits complete isolation from the outside in a beautiful haven of retreat.

The banquet hall you have always wanted awaits you. It is 50 feet long with glass doors leading to a walled in brick patio shaded with citrus trees and shrubs. The adjoining den leads into the Rumpus Room. This is the only banquet hall of its kind in Palm Springs.

Notice the Rumpus Room or Lounge amply large enough to lend ease and freedom of movement for large parties. Beautifully decorated it has a sense of solidness and solace to both family and friends.

Notice the furnishings in the huge living room. The open-beamed ceiling. The entire room lends a sense of belonging the moment one enters. There is the foyer too just at the entrance that is really gorgeous.

The main house consists of five bedrooms plus five baths, maid's room and bath. The West Wing consists of four guest rooms and bath. Replacement today would amount in cost to:

- $ 40,000 for land, landscaping and walls.
- $ 40,000 at least in the replacement of furnishings.
- $100,000 in improvement by present owner.

And the present owner is leaving for an extended tour of Europe and wants to sell before he leaves. All of this for only:

$115,000 with easy terms to qualified buyer.
